BANDITS LEAVE TERROR TRAIL

The News Review

By BRUCE CATTON

PROBABLY the greatest mistake anyone could make these days would be to under-estimate the extent and force of the new spirit that has swept the country since last spring.

Travelers Play Storks Here Next Tuesday Evening

Manager Guy Sturdy Stopping on Barnstorming
Tour of State

URGE HALF HOLIDAY

Pate Draws Assignment to Face Southern League
Team

The Little Rock Travelers, Southern Association baseball team, will arrive in Hope next Tuesday for a game with the Storks, marking their first appearance here since 1920.

The travelers are barnstorming the state, following the closing of the southern league last Sunday. Large crowds have been greeting Manager Guy Sturdy and his players.

According to schedule the Travelers will continue their tour into Texas and probably to Mexico City after leaving Hope.

Manager Lloyd Coop said Thursday an attempt would be made here to urge Mayor Ruff Boyett to declare a half holiday, closing business hours during the game in order that clerks may be given an opportunity to witness the exhibition.

Coming here with Manager Sturdy will be his first-string line-up, augmented by three or four other southern league players.

According to a letter received here the Traveler team will include Sturdy, Dashiell, Akers, Tapon, Gerken, Brown, Styles, Willoughby, Nugent, Sharpe, Wabell and Touchstone.

The Stork line-up will be composed of Sparks, Fule, C. Schooley, Whitten, W. Cook, Crawford, Coop, DeHann, Cargile, J. Cook, Harper, McClendon and Womble will be available for relief pitching in the event Pate has trouble with the Travelers.

The game will be called promptly at 3 o'clock.

Arkansas Labor Ends Its Meeting

Pine Bluff Is Selected as 1934 Convention
City

FORT SMITH.—(P)—Several hundred Arkansas State Federation of Labor delegates were en route here Thursday after electing new officers, selecting Pine Bluff as the 1934 convention city and passing numerous resolutions criticizing alleged "open shop" activities over the state.

Re-election of five of the seven major officers of the group late Wednesday brought the three-day meeting to a close. Elmer Grant, Little Rock, again heads the federation after his re-election as president.

Only two officers, Jim Haines, Paris, third vice president, and Carl Schweighart, Little Rock, fifth vice president, were the new officials named. Haines succeeds M. L. Henry, Little Rock, and Schweighart succeeds Broze Webb, Fort Smith.

Others retaining their offices were Victor Wood, Fort Smith, first vice president; W. S. Busick, Pine Bluff, fourth vice president; and H. W. Thackeray, Little Rock, secretary-treasurer. Thackeray will be serving his seventh term. All terms will run for a period of two years.

Believe Delight Youth to Recover

R. Simpson, Shot Through
Lung, in Hospital
Here

Roy Simpson, 20-year-old Delight youth, shot by Sheriff Clarence Diddy at Nashville early Wednesday morning and brought to Josephine hospital here, was believed Thursday by physicians to be on the road to recovery.

Simpson was shot through the left lung when the Howard county sheriff confronted him on the outskirts of Nashville. When ordered to hold up his hands the youth thrust his arm into the bosom of his shirt.

Believing he had started for a pistol, Sheriff Diddy pulled his own gun and opened fire. The bullet entered the left breast and emerged from the back of his shoulder.

This spirit finds expression in various ways—in the blossoming out of blue eagles in shop windows, in parades and mass meetings, in the new air of optimism which appears in the conversation of ordinary citizens.

These are surface indications only. But they are like the little ripples and the thimble-sized whirlpools that form on the surface of a deep, swift river. A tremendous tide is in motion underneath; and the man who forgets that fact is very likely to get swept away, head over heels.

Now this means more than a mere revival of hope. It signifies a determination to reform a great many things which need reforming; and the one thing that appears certain is that this new force cannot be contained in the old channels, but will if necessary find a totally new way of expressing itself.

A Communist writer in a radical magazine remarked the other day that laissez faire capitalism—the rugged individualism of sainted memory—is dead as a door nail. As a result, he asserted, America could do one of just two things; it could turn to Fascism, or it could go Communist. These, he said, are the only alternatives. The writer found Fascism far more likely. Taking what has happened in Europe as a guide, it must be admitted that this radical viewpoint has much to sustain it. In Russia, in Italy and in Germany the old type of unrestricted capitalism collapsed, and each country in turn had to choose between Lenin's kind of society and Mussolini's. But why take it for granted that the same thing must happen over here?

It hasn't yet been proved that there is no other alternative. It certainly has not been proved that finding such an alternative is too big a task for American intelligence. It is certain that not one American in a hundred really wants to see either Communism or Fascism adopted here.

Isn't it more likely that the new spirit in this land is too big and too strong to be contained by the old formulas—that our great contribution to modern life may well be to find a solution for industrialism's problems without despotism, without oppression and without a revolution?

The advantages of modern safety construction in railroad equipment were never better illustrated than in the recent passenger train wreck on the Erie railroad near Birmingham, N. Y.

In this accident a milk train crashed into the rear of a passenger train. The car it hit was of solid steel construction and was not crushed; but the car ahead was made of wood and it crumpled instantly, killing more than a dozen people and seriously injuring many more. Most of the people in the steel car escaped with minor hurts.

That story speaks its own moral. The wood-constructed passenger car, obviously, is out of date. Only the car built of steel offers its occupants protection when an accident occurs.

The applause which greeted President Roosevelt's announcement that the United States would try to follow a "good neighbor" policy toward its Latin-American neighbors had hardly died down when the Cuban revolution took an unexpected ominous new turn, so that some United States warships had to be dispatched to the troubled island at top speed.

For a nation which had just turned its back on the old policy of intervention, this is certainly a bit of very bad luck. But while our warships stand by in the danger zone, we might as well get our minds straight on one thing:

The only valid excuse we could have for landing armed men on Cuban soil would be to protect American lives and property from unruly mobs. The kind of government the Cubans set up is something else again. Landing marines to keep Americans from being killed is one thing; landing them to tell the Cubans what kind of government to have is sheer meddling.

Sixteen Men Shot Down As Miners Declare 'Holiday'

More Than Score Beaten and Stoned in Battle in Pennsylvania

GAS BOMBS ARE USED

President Roosevelt Dispatches Federal Agents to Soft Coal Area

UNIONTOWN, Pa.—(AP)—Sixteen men were shot and more than a score beaten and stoned Thursday as rioting at three mines signaled the official start of a mining "holiday" in the Southwestern Pennsylvania soft coal field.

The trouble flared at the Gates, Edenborn and Footedale mines, all owned by the H. C. Frick Coke company, as pickets tried to prevent men from entering the pits.

The most serious clash was at the Gate mine. It was there that all sixteen were shot.

Pickets were reported to have stoned miners going to work. Deputy sheriffs, heavily armed, got into an argument with Louis Kromer and one of them pushed him. As other pickets advanced the deputies threw tear gas bombs and the pickets hurled them back. Fighting broke out, clubs fell and stones were thrown. Then the deputies opened fire.

Mike Cutwright, a deputy, got in front of a fellow officer's gun, pickets said, and his left arm was blown off.

In addition to Kromer, a leader in the strike movement, and Cutwright, the other wounded are Steve Hrosky, Steve Ondosh, George Ely, Anton Maura, Walter Ordorsky, Paul Popson, Mason Roberts, George Hroska, Joe Goletz, Mike Budman, James Shannon, Joe Gromer, George Elleg and Vincent Slunga.

After the outbreak, the ground was strewn with wounded. Ambulances sped to the scene and the casualties were brought to a hospital.

At Edenborn, John Garrow, 40, suffered a broken arm and a fractured skull during a two-hour riot. Mike Savage, 36, has a broken arm and lacerated head. Both were hurt while trying to prevent men from entering the mine. A score of others were injured less seriously at Edenborn.

John Cochran, 35, and several other pickets were clubbed and stoned at Footedale.

After the excitement at Gates quieted down, Thomas Vidovich, John Brumstick and Ed Rusky, three pickets who were in the thick of the melee, said the deputies began firing after Mike Donovan, mine superintendent, shouted:

"Let 'em have it!"

"Then guns began blazing all around us," Vidovich said. "They threw tear gas bombs into the crowd as they ran down the railroad tracks near the mine entrance and fired into us. One of the wounded men fell in the track. A freight train was coming and we barely got him off the tracks in time because they were throwing tar gas at us."

At the offices of the Frick company it was said that the firing started after the strikers had stoned the deputies and men who wanted to go to work. State police in Uniontown were not informed of the rioting until a half hour after it was over.

Federal Agents to Scene

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—President Roosevelt Thursday sent several federal agents to Uniontown, Pennsylvania, to co-operate with Governor Finckel's representatives in an investigation of a shooting affair between nine guards and miners.

At the same time President Roosevelt ordered immediate conclusion of negotiations for the bituminous coal industry code.

Call Out Guards

HARRISBURG, Penn.—(AP)—Preparations were being made here Thursday to call out the National Guard to prevent further trouble in Fayette county mine area.

Inflation "Pretty Quick"

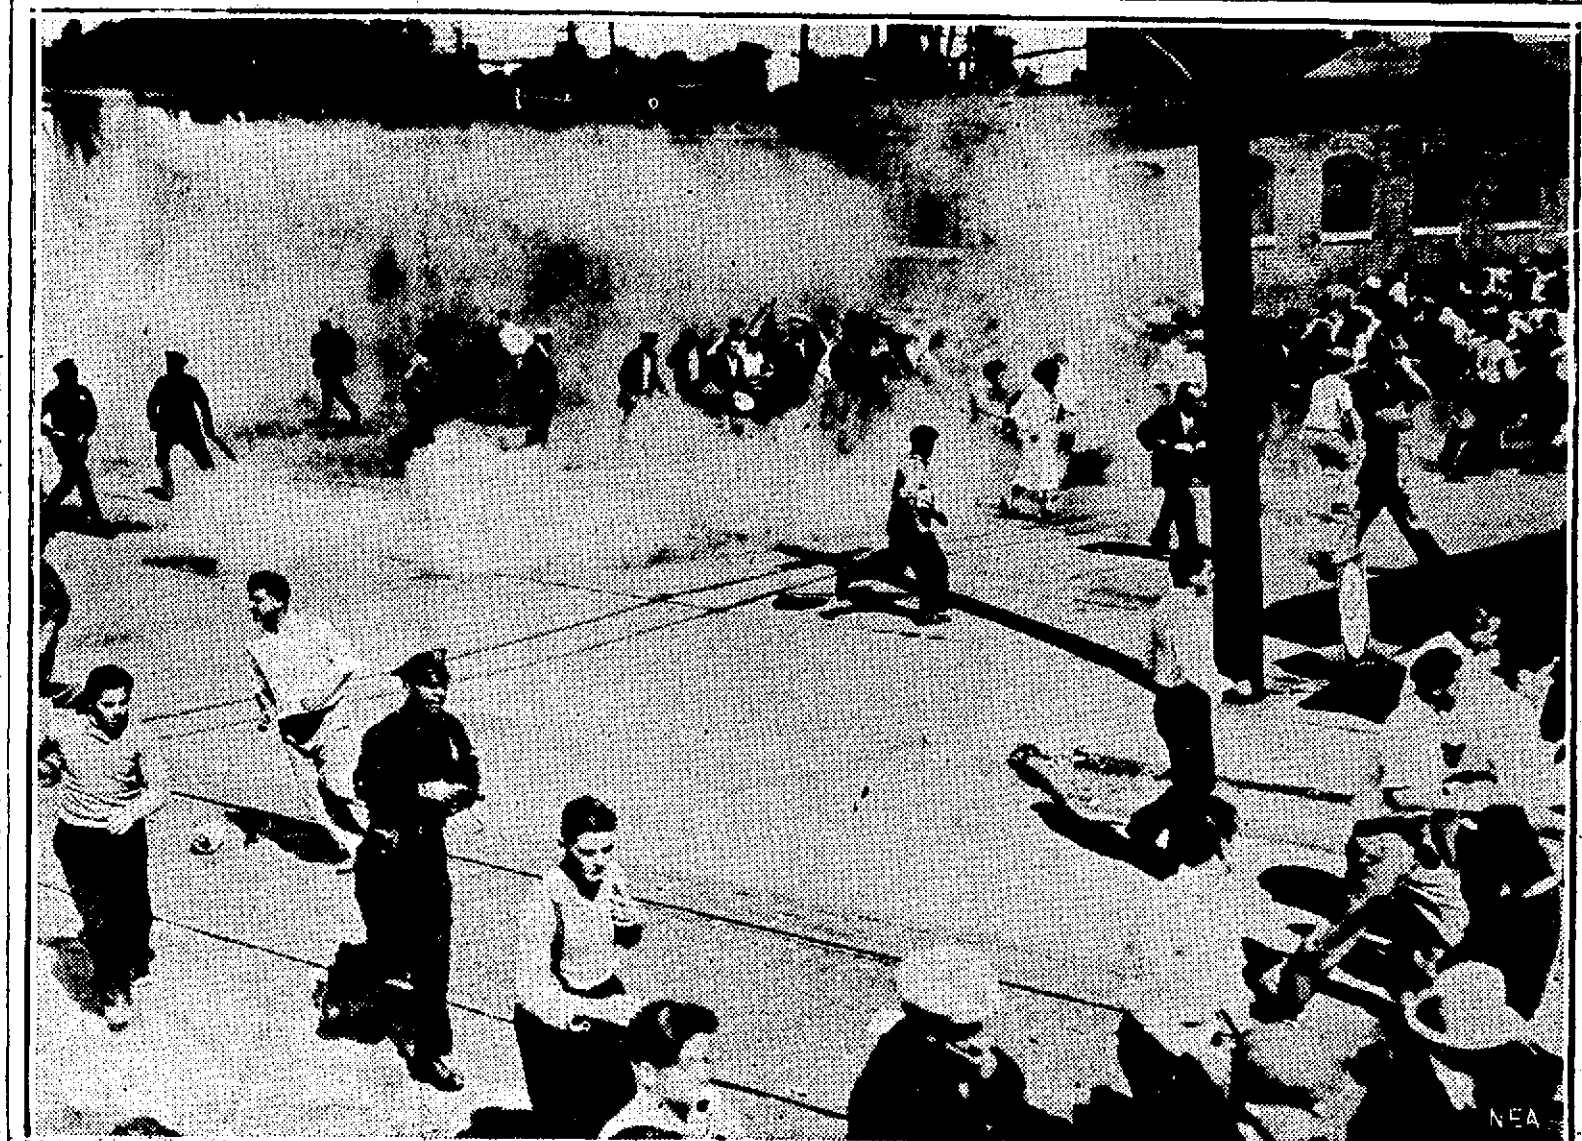

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—Chairman Harrison of the senate finance committee, predicted to newspapermen Thursday that the administration would take some action to raise commodity prices "pretty quick, whether you call it inflation or not."

While not stating definitely, Chairman Harrison strongly indicated the dollar would be devaluated to bring about a price rise.

October Cotton Gains $1 Per Bale Thursday

New York October cotton climbed another dollar per bale Thursday, closing at 9.37, up 20 points from the previous close of 9.17. Thursday was the second consecutive day the staple has risen $1 per bale.

Clubs and Tear Gas Quell Riot

Hundreds of strikers had attempted to rush the gates of a silk dyeing mill at Lodi, N. J., and this was the scene as police turned them back with tear gas bombs and clubs. Pickets are shown as they dropped their placards and fled blindly from the fumes. At least 20 persons were injured. Similar strikes in more than a hundred other dyeing mills brought the manufacture of silk textiles to a standstill in the east, for some 40,000 workers already were on strike from the spinning and weaving mills.

Captured After Escape Attempt

Helen Spence Eaton Makes Another Bid for Liberty at Prison Farm

JACKSONVILLE, Ark.—(AP)—Helen Spence Eaton, 22-year-old white country girl now serving her second murder sentence, was under discipline at the state farm for women Thursday after bloodhounds cut short her attempt to escape late Wednesday night.

It was the third attempted flight made by the girl since she entered the prison at the age of 18 when she was sentenced to five years for the killing of her father's alleged slayer, Jack Worls, as a jury was about to retire with the case at DeWitt.

The shooting of Worls occurred in the court room.

Following her parole several months ago, she returned to the prison, voluntarily surrendered and confessed the murder of Jim Bolots, DeWitt restaurant proprietor, for whom she was employed prior to the Worls killing.

On a plea of guilty to the Bolots killing, she was sentenced to 10 years which she is now serving.

7 States Needed To Repeal Prohibition

Idaho and New Mexico to Cast Vote Next Tuesday

By Associated Press

Twenty-nine states Thursday marched the repeal path; only seven more need follow to end national prohibition. Maryland, Minnesota, and Colorado were the latest recruits. All voted Tuesday to abolish the eighteenth amendment and left the score in 1933's balloting: For repeal—29; against—3.

If the seven states now needed to supply the three-quarters of the union required for repeal are among the 10 voting before November 8, the repeal amendment will be ratified formally on December 6—date of the 36th convention.

The wets carried Maryland overwhelmingly. Fast mounting figures put the repeal majority at nearly five to one.

The margains were smaller but substantial in Colorado and Minnesota, home of Andrew J. Volstead who sponsored the prohibition enforcement law. Late counts listed both in the two-to-one class.

Prohibitionists promised undiminished efforts to block the trend which on Monday cost them Maine, the nation's first bone dry state.

Apparently These Farmers Do Not Need the Money

Money—and nobody to give it to. Apparently this is the first tangible signal that prosperity has returned to Hempstead county farmers.

Emergency Agriculturist Frank Stanley announced Thursday that he had 10 checks for as many farmers, which have been waiting at the city hall for more than two weeks.

None of the checks have been called for, although notices went out through the mails several days ago that the checks, aggregating a considerable sum, had arrived and could be had upon calling at the city hall.

Mr. Stanley said Thursday that the checks would have to be sent back to Washington within 15 days after their arrival here, if not called for. The dead-line is Saturday. The checks will be mailed back, if not called for then, Stanley said.

The government money, received here under provisions of the cotton acreage reduction plan, belongs to: William F. Spears, Carl Henderson, Robert Turner, Nellie B. Leach, G. A. Collins, R. L. Rodgers, Jim Aubrey, T. J. Brazille, J. J. Moses and Edward W. Rinchart.

Terry Appears Sure Place in 2nd Vote

Leads Sam Rorex by Small Margin With Most of Vote In

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Holding second place by a narrow margin in a nearly complete tabulation, D. D. Terry, Pulaski county legislator, appeared virtually certain Thursday of being the runoff primary opponent of Brooks Hays, democratic national committeeman, who led the three cornered race for the fifth district congressional nomination in Tuesday's first primary.

With Hays far out in front of his two opponents and perhaps not more than 300 or 400 votes unreported, Terry had a lead of 124 votes over Sam Rorex, former member of the state tax commission, for second place in the runoff primary to be held on Tuesday, September 26.

The few precincts unreported were isolated rural ones which poll normally an extremely small vote.

Cotton Pickers Strike; 20 Jailed

Leaders Charged With Threatened Violence in Dardanelle Area

DARDANELE, Ark.—(AP)—(P)The trial of 20 alleged leaders and participants in a cotton picking strike, held in jail here under heavy guard, was set Thursday for next Monday in circuit court. Bonds were fixed at $500 each, which none were able to make.

Predict More Arrests

DARDANELE.—(P)—Forty-nine indictments were returned by the Yell county grand jury Wednesday and 20 prisoners were heavily guarded in the county jail Wednesday night as an outgrowth of a strike of cotton pickers which has virtually stopped all picking in this section.

Officers said they planned to make probably 100 more arrests in connection with the strike which reached a climax with a march of 200 or more white and negro pickers through the fields.

After the grand jury had returned the indictments, W. M. Waller was arrested and jailed as the leader of the strike trouble. He was not among those indicted. Nineteen white and negro men previously had been arrested.

The heavy guard was placed around the jail Wednesday night. A large crowd of men had loitered around it during the afternoon as the grand jury was in session.

The leaders of the strike were charged by officers with having threatened cotton pickers with violence unless they quit work. The strikers demanded 75 cents a hundred pounds for picking as compared with 50 cents now being paid.

Many left the fields, either through sympathy with the strike movement or fear of them if they refused. It was said by officers to have started a general exodus of pickers from this section.

Each year during the cotton picking season, there is an influx of transient families—both white and negro—many of these have left as a result of the trouble.

English, History Books Re-Adopted

Contracts Signed by Textbook Commission—Will Mean Savings

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—The State Textbook Commission Thursday re-adopted for the next six years textbooks in English and United States history, which have been in use in Arkansas schools since 1927. The vote was six for re-adoption.

The new contracts will mean savings of from 15 to 20 per cent in retail prices to school patrons for the seven-year period, the contractors agreeing to put the reduced prices in effect this year.

Governor Futrell said he did not vote because "I did not know how to vote." "I meant to advise myself before I signed the contract made Thursday," he said, but added that he knew of no reason why he should not sign the contract.

Three Louisiana Prison Convicts Slain By Guards

In Dying Statement One Convict Says They Were "Butchered"

ESCAPE PLOT TOLD

Five of Eleven Still at Liberty—Search Is Being Pushed

MARKSVILLE, La.—(AP)—Texas officers Thursday took up a search for four Louisiana convicts, among 12 desperadoes who last Sunday shot their way out of the state prison farm and who for four days have carried on a battle siege through central Louisiana that has resulted in seven slayings.

After stealing cars in re-lays, kidnaping passengers, looting stores and terrorizing crossroads the remaining group at liberty crossed the Louisiana line into east Texas about mid-night Wednesday.

Charles Frazier, notorious southwestern bandit and killer, wanted for crimes in Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana, is believed to be heading the flight into Texas.

From reports received here it is believed Frazier is suffering from gangrenous wounds received in a battle with officers at the prison Sunday.

Frazier was sentenced to life in the Arkansas penitentiary for killing a Texarkana policeman. He was given a Christmas furlough by former Governor Parnell, and failed to return.

Later he was arrested at a Palm Dealing, La., bank robbery and sentenced to a long term.

The prison break Sunday in which two guards and a convict were killed and another probably fatally wounded was said to have been hatched by Jim Yarrell, southwest bank robber, who was shot to death a week before the prison break by a guard when he attempted to start disorder at the prison.

Three convicts were killed by a group of negro trustees who cornered them in a corn field near here Wednesday afternoon.

Slaughter Related

One of the three escaped Louisiana convicts killed near here Wednesday charged in a dying statement that they were "butchered" by negro trusty guards of the prison after they had thrown away their guns and surrendered with upraised hands.

This quiet little central Louisiana city was thrown into an uproar during the afternoon as the dead and wounded desperadoes were loaded on a truck and driven through the crowded streets with an escort of scores of peace officers.

James R. Russell, who made the dying statement, admitted to officers that a gun had been smuggled to him at the Angola penal farm by Marian Russell of New Orleans, his common law wife, a week before 12 convicts broke from the farm last Sunday in a gun battle which resulted in the death of four persons.

Russell also blamed Hunt B. Watson, alias Jim Yarrell, bandit convict slain by a guard a week before the break, as the originator of the freedom plot.

Charges Butchery

Russell made his dying statement before a group of parish officials, a minister and a priest, who had administered the last sacrament to him.

"You know you are going to die, don't you?" he was asked.

"Yes," Russell replied weakly.

He was asked how many guards came upon them Wednesday afternoon.

"Ten or 11," he answered.

"Did you resist?"

"Yes," Russell mumbled. "I tried to dun away—they butchered us. We threw our guns away and threw our hands up. When we did, they poured fire into us."

"Did you throw up your hands?" he was asked.

"Yes, we did."

"Then what happened?"

"They opened fire on us."

Russell grew weaker.

"Tell mother I'm sorry," were his last words.

Others Killed

Three other escaped prisoners were recaptured in this vicinity Wednesday, and the hunt for the five still at liberty swung toward Hornbeck, La., in north Louisiana where it was reported two of the convicts had commandeered an automobile and sped northeastward toward Many, La. Posses hastily took up a pursuit.

Fatriak J. Ryan, serving 42 to 84 years from Orleans as a multiple offender, and John Anderson, life term bandit from New Orleans under the repeated offense act, were shot to death in a cotton field as officers poured a fusillade of fire on their hide-out.

A fourth man was believed to have escaped into the woods during the battle in the cotton field.

OKLAHOMA CITY.—(AP)—Separate trials for Harvey Bailey and Thibet L. Bates, suspects in the $200,000 Charles F. Urschel kidnaping, were asked in petitions filed in federal court by their attorney, James H. Mathers.

In another petition, Mathers asserted the indictments against the pair were improperly drawn.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

Converting Stale Bread Into Croutons

There are various accompaniments for cream soups that increase the palatability of the soups and make for economy as well. Stale bread is used to splendid advantage for both Melba chips and croutons, two of the most popular accessories for cream soups of all varieties.

To make Melba chips, cut stale French rolls in very thin slices, crosswise of the roll. The slices shouldn't be more than an eighth of an inch thick. Spread them on a shallow pan and put in a slow oven until crisp and croutons into each plate of soup as he serves it.

Croutons, unlike crackers, are supposed to go right into the soup and form a part of it. Consequently they are eaten with the soup from the soup plate and never with the fingers.

Toast sticks are what their name implies, sticks of toast. The bread is cut in strips about 3/4 inch thick and 3/4 inch wide and 3 inches long. It is then toasted in a hot oven and served un buttered, like crackers. Each person helps himself and butters his stick or not as he prefers. Toast sticks are not broken into the soup.
